Introducing The Shelton Ambassadors

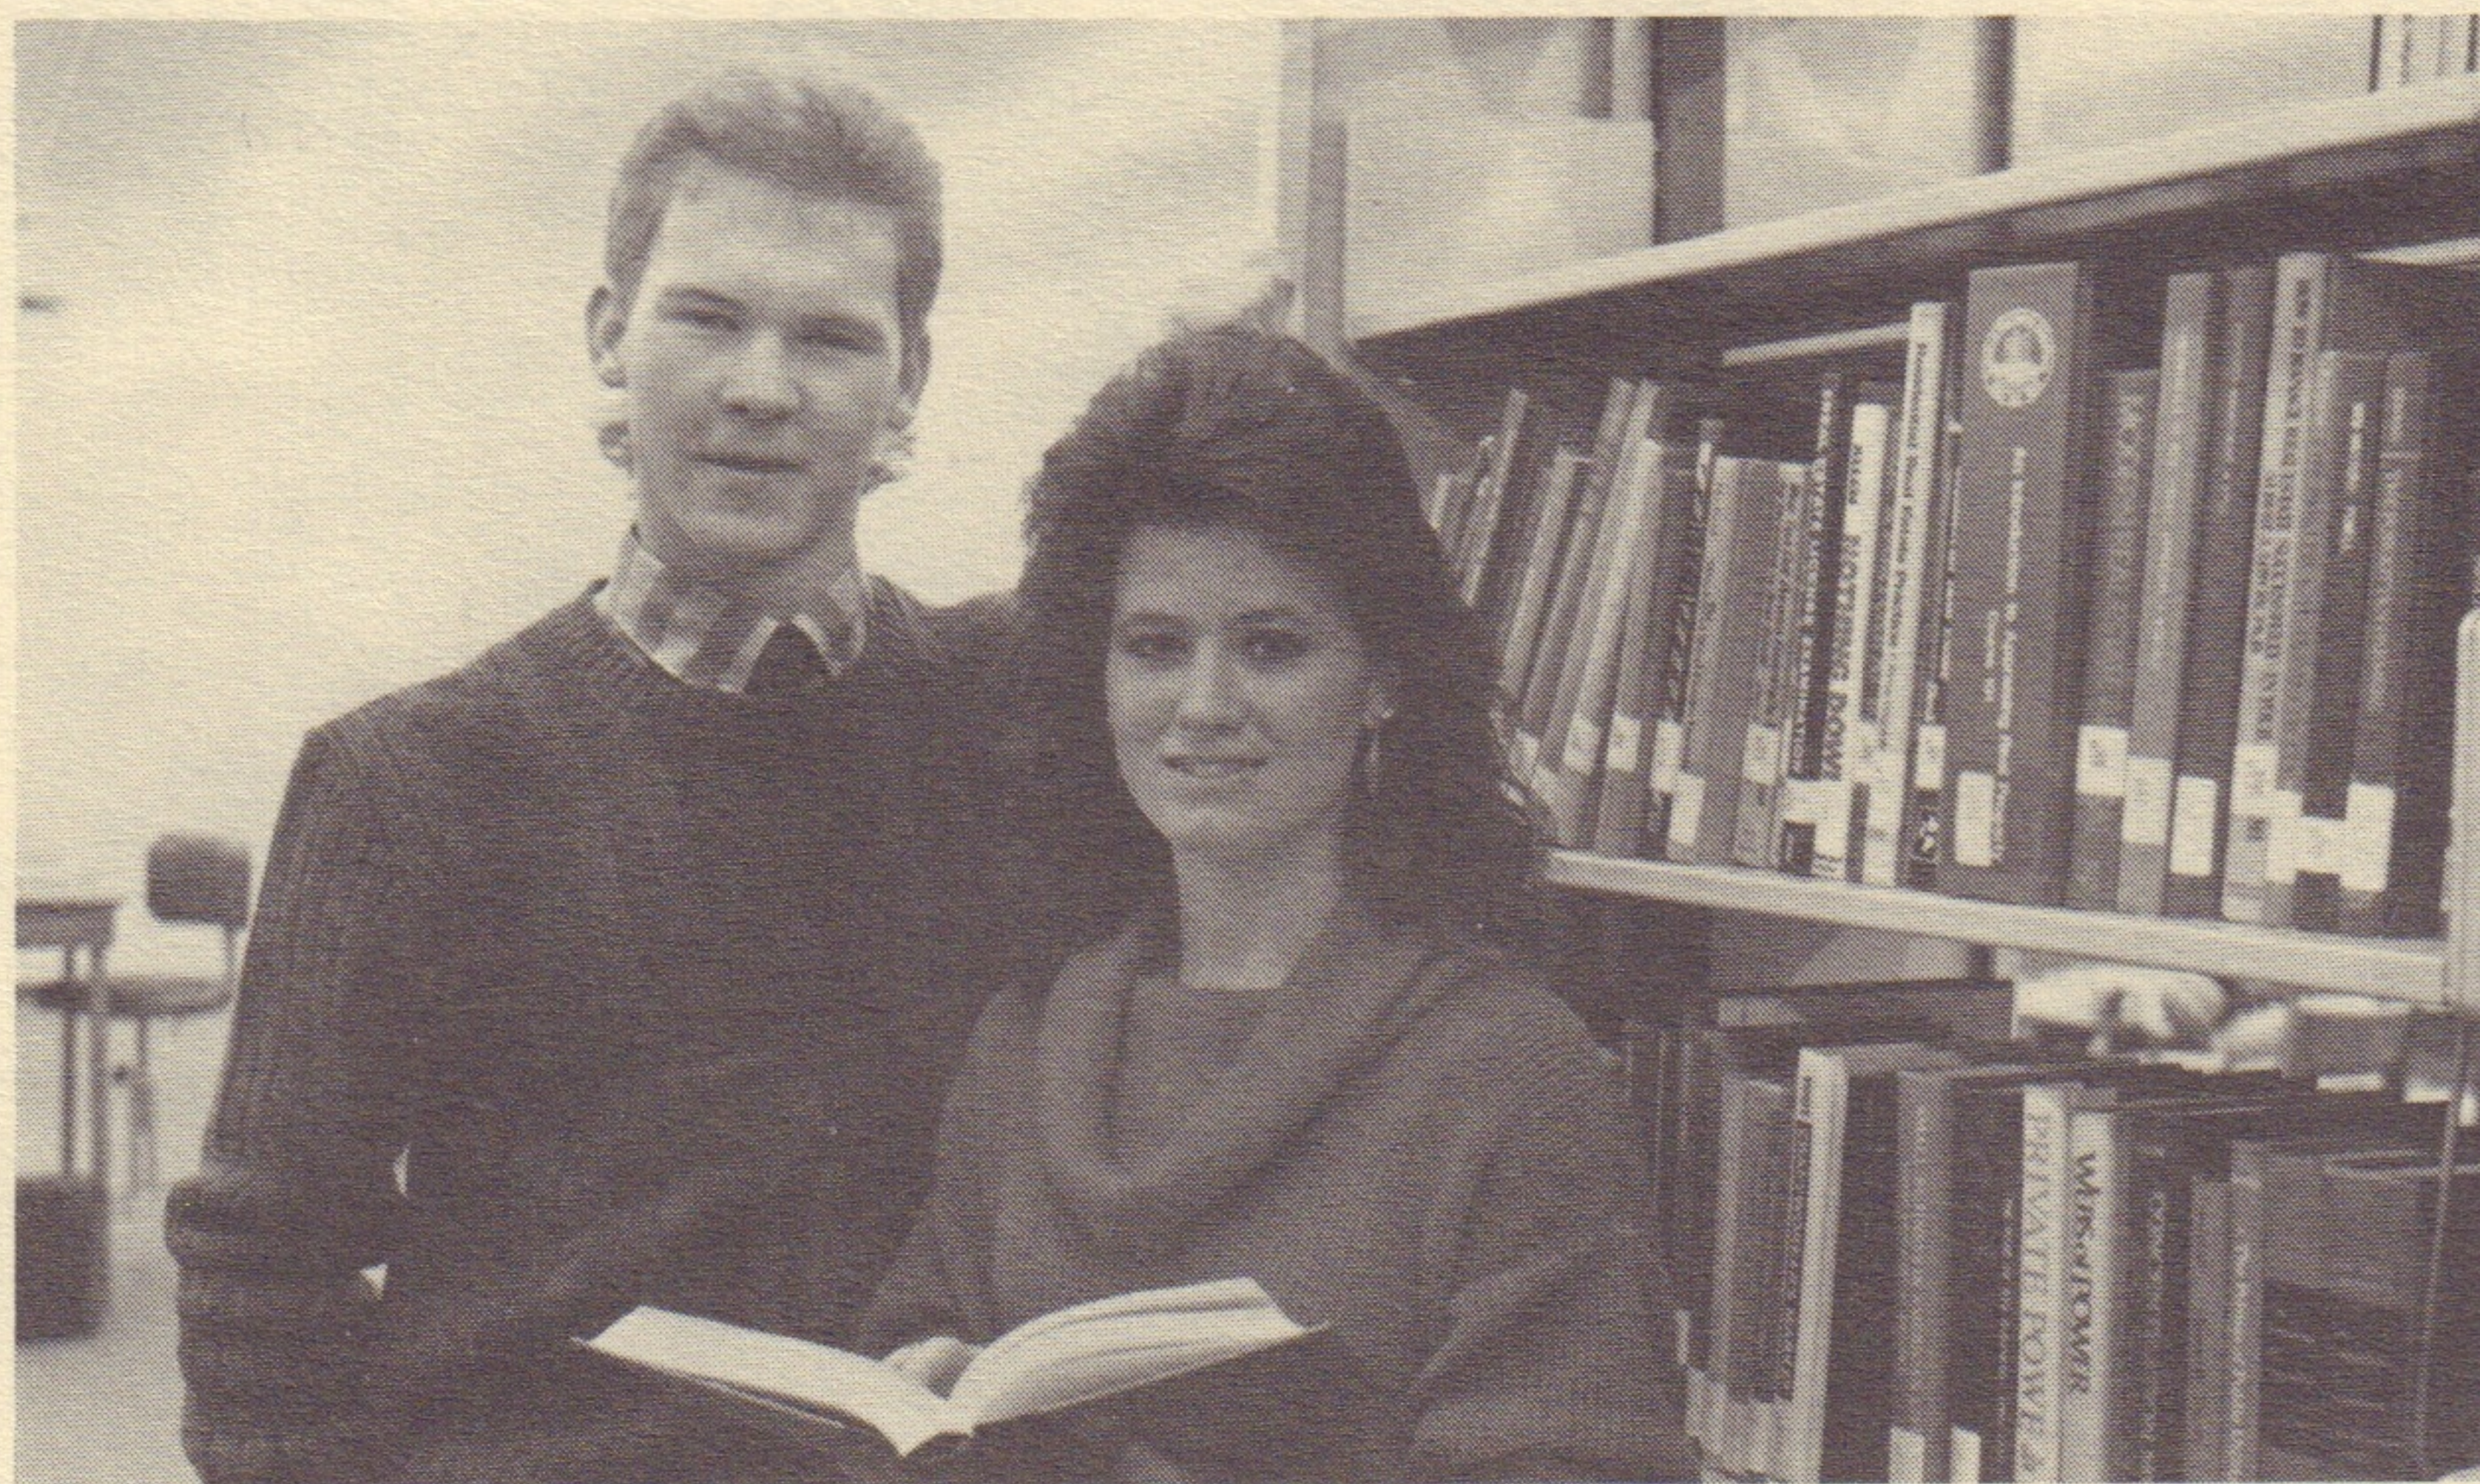

ANN HOLLINGSWORTH and TODD SMITH, Tuscaloosa County High School, know the importance of computer skills in today's fast-paced world. Shelton State offers a wide range of computer and other courses and a qualified counseling staff who will help you select the ones best for you.

Shelton State offers an outstanding science program. One of the real advantages is that our teachers also serve as the lab instructors, guaranteeing you the best instruction at all times. KEVIN BROWN, Central High School, has learned that at Shelton teaching is our business.

TRACY REED, Brookwood High School, knows that at Shelton State our students are special. Call us and find out how you can join the Shelton family.

CHRIS STEWART and LEIGH CADDIS, Hillcrest High School, enjoy being part of Shelton's Ambassador program. If you are interested in learning more about the Shelton Ambassadors or need information on scholarships or financial aid, contact the office of the dean of students, 759-1541, ext. 16.
